

The Institute for Principle Studies Presents

FIRST LOOK 2017

A Topic Workshop on the 2017/2018 Stoa Team Policy Debate Resolution!

IPS

Randal O'Toole is a Cato Institute Senior Fellow working on urban growth, public land, and transportation issues. O'Toole is the author of numerous Cato papers. He has also written for Regulation magazine as well as op-eds and articles for numerous other national journals and newspapers. An Oregon native, O'Toole was educated in forestry at Oregon State University and in economics at the University of Oregon.

Ben Tripousis, Northern California Regional Director for the California High Speed Rail Authority. As the Northern California Regional Director, Ben is responsible for the development of the California High Speed Rail project from the Bay Area to the Central Valley. He is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley and has a Master's Degree in Public Administration from San Jose State University.

Adrian Moore, Ph.D., is vice president of policy at Reason Foundation. Moore leads Reason's policy implementation efforts and conducts his own research on topics such as privatization, government and regulatory reform, air quality, transportation and urban growth, prisons and utilities. Moore, who has testified before Congress on several occasions, regularly advises federal, state and local officials on ways to streamline government and reduce costs.

Brian D. Marshall, Air Traffic Control Supervisor at the Oakland International Airport. Mr. Marshall has worked in the field of air traffic control for 29 years. Brian started his air traffic control career in the Navy where he served for 10 years. After his service, Brian then went to work for the Federal Aviation Administration where he has currently been employed for 19 years.

Gregory Rehmke, Program Director for Economic Thinking. Greg has a degree in Economics from the University of Washington and has worked with the Reason Foundation, the Institute for Humane Studies, the Center for the American Idea, and the Foundation for Economic Education. Greg Rehmke is currently member of the Institute for Principle Studies' Scholars Council.

Ninos P. Malek, Professor of Economics at De Anza College (Cupertino, California) and an Economics Lecturer at San Jose State University. Ninos holds his B.A. and M.A. in Economics from San Jose State University and a Ph.D. in Economics from George Mason University. Ninos currently sits on the Scholars Council at the Institute for Principle Studies.

Michael Winther, President of the Institute for Principle Studies. Mike sits on the Board of Scholars at the Mackinac Center for Public Policy. He holds a degree in political science from the University of Idaho.

This is not a typical debate camp!

There are no lectures on debate theory, no lab groups and no practice rounds. Our focus is on learning about the resolution. The ideal debate season starts with head-knowledge about the resolution. Our speakers will provide this, from a variety of different perspectives, directly to the students. Head-knowledge, resources, and case ideas are the fruit of this concentrated, intensive two-day conference on the 2017-2018 Stoa debate resolutions with separate tracks for each resolution.

WHEN:

August 11th-12th from 9am-5pm

WHERE:

California Crosspoint Academy
25500 Industrial Blvd, Hayward, CA

COST:

Register by August 4th
$125.00 per person
$250.00 for family of 2 or more
Registration after August 4th
$150 per person
$275.00 per family of 2 or more

TRAVEL:

Our facility is conveniently located within 20 miles of 3 major airports!
- Oakland International (12 miles)
- San Jose International (12 miles)
- San Francisco International (20 miles)

REGISTRATION:

Registration is now open on the IPS website
www.PrincipleStudies.org

MORE INFORMATION:

Please contact Matt Vasquez
Ph. 209-575-2005
or email Matt@PrincipleStudies.org